Report from Council Members/Mayor/City Administrator

Dodson reported that he attended the Water Board meeting and they discussed an apprentice program for one or two years and passed a resolution to purchase a new service truck.

Olson attended a volunteer fire meeting to get a better sense of the volunteer points program, they are excited and it is an excellent tool for participation. He said it really is an incentive for them to participate and thanks the volunteer fire on behalf of the council and is proud council passed the incentive program/package.

Archibald added it brings a little competition for the volunteer members.

City Administrator Downs mentioned the first housing recipient had an open house, they have received two bids and are ready to move forward with house two and three.

Downs also mentioned there are amazing things going on with the business stories in Hiawatha. She said Mary Quinn moved to Hiawatha, she is very dynamic and her dedication to the community is amazing and you will love the Business Story video when it comes out.

Downs updated council on the A/V System in the council chambers has not been up to par and has been having conversations with other cities and are currently waiting to get estimates back.
