Citizen's Input

Carl Sefl reported to council on the results of the Get Out the Vote Campaign, a partnership with the City encouraging citizens to vote during the 2016 presidential election. Sefl said it appears the marketing/branding effort was not a successful endeavor. Sefl reported there were 1.6% less registered voters, 4.3% fewer people voted, and 200 fewer people took out absentee ballots compared to the last presidential election.

Sefl said there were 15 absentee ballots dropped off at Hiawatha City Hall and he delivered those to Linn County. Sefl stated he had five (5) volunteers lined up to drive people to the polls but nobody called for this service.

Sefl continued to state even though the campaign was not a success, the City made a good branding effort.
